

Part Time Program Coordinator Job Description

Hardy G*rls Healthy Wom*n (HGHW) is a statewide nonprofit with the mission of taking girls & gender expansive youth seriously and putting the power in their hands to challenge a society that ignores their brilliance. We dare adult allies to join us. Our vision is girls and nonbinary youth causing a ruckus. Started in 2000, HGHW, a research-based organization, is headquartered in Waterville with programming around the state.

HGHW seeks a part-time (15 hrs/week) Program Coordinator to manage, evaluate, and expand HGHW programming. The successful candidate will understand the realities of working in a small organization where every job is hands-on. The organization is dynamic, and the job holds potential for organizational leadership. We are seeking a candidate with multifaceted experience in working with girls and gender expansive youth. Some travel, as well as evening and weekend work, will be required. The position reports to the Executive Director.

A note about the workplace: We are a small staff with bold, unflinching goals. We value each other, respect each other, and laugh a lot. We really enjoy each other's company and while the organizational values match our own, our jobs are not our lives. As full humans with lives outside of our jobs, we create a space that welcomes our authentic selves to the work. We have an office space in Augusta, but our team meetings are mostly done via Zoom.

Just girls? Gender is a social construct and for centuries it's held onto a binary (boys & girls) system. HGHW does not believe in the binary, but knows the deep history of systemic sexism and transphobia has uniquely harmed self-identifying girls and gender expansive folks. This is who we work with. As consistently learning intersectional feminists, we welcome and celebrate folks across all identities, abilities, races, ethnicities, religions, economic statuses, and sexual orientations.
